

Marple Newtown School District
SUMMER SCHOOL
for Middle and High School Students
Monday, June 29 through Thursday, August 6, 2009

Program Overview

The Senior High Summer School program has been designed for the student seeking restoration or enrichment. The program of summer courses will provide an opportunity to achieve high school credit for courses previously taken or to learn new skills.

Restoration Subjects are for the student who must retake and pass a required course or for the student who is seeking improvement in academic areas.

Enrichment Subjects are Honors level full credit courses for those students who wish to develop skills independent of the academic curriculum.

Students should review our Summer School program with their guidance counselor before assuming high school credit will transfer. Students from all schools are welcome to enroll.

Location of Middle/High School Classes

All classes will be held at Marple Newtown High School, 120 Media Line Road in Newtown Square, PA 19073

Tuition

MNSD – student restoration:	$160
MNSD – student full-credit:	$240
Other – student restoration:	$175
Other – student full-credit:	$260

Note

- Please register as early as possible.
- MNSD reserves the right to cancel any of the courses offered if enrollment is insufficient.
- Times for restoration courses are subject to change.
- All students will receive a Summer School report card showing the actual grade earned. This grade will also be reported to the student's school.
- Exceeding three (3) absences will result in the student being removed from class.
