

Oral Presentation

Overview:

You are expected to prepare an oral presentation of about 15 minutes. Choose a topic relating to what you learned at the conference and what you observed during your visitation. To be effective, a presentation should focus on one or two main points, illustrated through the use of examples. Begin with an attention-getting introduction, followed by an organized body of the presentation, and finishing with a conclusion.

Visual Aids:

You must create one or more high quality visual aids that will be used to enhance your presentation. Examples include, but are not limited to a power point presentation, a video, overhead transparencies, posters, pictures, charts, or hand-outs. Your visuals should have a professional appearance (Magic marker on poster board is unacceptable!) You may use examples of literature or product samples provided by the business you visited in addition to the visual aids created for your presentation.

Note cards:

Use note cards as a reference, but do not read your presentation.

Maintaining audience interest:

Consider getting the class involved in your presentation through question/answer, role-playing, a mini-quiz or a review game.

Dress:

Career dress is expected for your presentation.

Boys: dress shirt and tie, pants (not jeans), shoes (not sneakers)

Girls: skirt and blouse or dress or dressy pants outfit.

Grading:

There is a rubric included in your packet that will be used by your mentor teacher to evaluate your presentation. Be sure to review it carefully! The presentation counts for 50% of your grade for this project. See the next page for suggestions of good presentations.

Due date:

Your mentor teacher will give you the due date for your presentation. You will have at least two weeks from the time of your visitation.

Example of a good oral presentation

Topic: Technology in the Workplace

Intro: "The computer used to send Neil Armstrong to the moon was less sophisticated than the ones used in an iPod."

Body:

1. Types of technology used in the work place today are.....
(examples from Conference and from the Visitation)
2. Technology skills that employers look for in new employees include...
(examples.....)
3. Employers offer the following training to keep their employees up to date: _____
(examples...)
4. Employees with advanced technological skills get better pay, more promotions.
(examples....)"

Visual Aids: charts, overheads, graphs, etc, created by the student

Conclusion: " Based on my observations, I recommend that high school students take courses in _____ and _____ to prepare for well-paying jobs."

Comments:

Intro: Interesting fact, focuses the audience on the topic.

Body: Several related points on the topic of technology, illustrated by examples from the student's Junior Initiative experiences.

Visuals: Visuals are created by the student.

Conclusion: Conclusion contains meaningful message for the audience.

Example of a Poor Oral Presentation

Topic: My Visitation

Intro: "For my Junior Initiative project, I visited Mr. X at ABC Company."

Body: "First I saw _____, then I saw _____, and finally I saw _____."

Visual Aids: "Here are some pamphlets from the ABC Company."

Conclusion: "I think I would like / would not like to have a job like Mr. X because..."

Comments:

Intro: Does not engage the interest of the audience.

Body: Description of the visitation shows no thought about what was observed. It does not relate this business to other businesses (Conference) or to the student's personal experiences.

Visual Aids: The student did not create the visuals.

Conclusion: The conclusion demonstrates no understanding of the business world. It is merely a statement of personal career goals.

Suggestions for topics for good Oral Presentations:

- Working for a large corporation vs. working for a small company: advantages, disadvantages
- Entrepreneurship: what it takes to start your own business
- How to get a raise: the factors that influence raises and promotions
- Global business: challenges and rewards of working for a multi-national company.
- The business side of being a doctor / a musician / an actor, etc.
- How the internet is changing retail sales / the travel industry/ stock brokers/ real estate sales, etc.
- How important is high morale in the workplace?
- The "Work Ethic": What is it? How important is it?
- 5 issues that are common to all businesses (such as payroll, advertising, etc.)
- Which is more important, job satisfaction or high pay?
- Is a college education really worth the time and money?

Junior Initiative Oral Presentation – Rubric and Score Sheet

Student Name: _____ Mentor Teacher: _____

Scoring: 5 Excellent; professional quality

- 4 High quality
- 3 Acceptable and appropriate
- 2 Minimal quality
- 1 Poorly done; possible omissions and/or errors
- 0 Not done at all

start time: _____

end time : _____

total time: _____

ITEM

Score

Begins with an attention-getting introduction.....	_____
Physical attributes: makes eye contact, appropriate voice volume.....	_____
States their theme and demonstrates understanding and application of their theme	_____
Cites examples from several sources (conference sessions, visitation, host, etc.).....	_____
Has created and used one or more high quality visual aids.....	_____
Includes and elaborates on Naviance reflection piece.....	_____
Presentation is organized.....	_____
Engages the audience through participation/questions/quiz/polling/etc.	_____
Maintains the interest of the audience throughout the presentation.....	_____
Dresses appropriately, professional appearance.....	_____

SUBTOTAL (out of 50) = _____

SUBTRACT 5 points for each full minute under 10 minutes..... - _____

ADJUSTED SUBTOTAL = _____

ADD 10 points if Organization Guide was completed and turned in at least one day in advance _____

ADD 40 POINTS + 40

FINAL TOTAL (out of 100) = _____

DIVIDE FINAL TOTAL BY 2 AND ENTER THIS GRADE* ON THE CHECKLIST: _____

(*Do not round off decimal answers – record grade to tenths place)

Oral Presentation: Organization Guide

To the student: This page will help you organize your work. Hand it to your mentor at least two days before your oral presentation in class. It will count for 10 points.

Name: _____ Date of Presentation: _____

1. What is the theme of your presentation?

2. Did you use all of the following sources: the Conference, the Visitation and Interview, and possibly your own personal experiences?

_____ Yes _____ No

3. How will you get the audience's attention?

4. What will be the main points of your presentation? (at least 3)

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

5. Which types of visual aids will you use in your presentation? (These must be made by you!)

* Consult with your mentor in advance if you need special equipment!*

6. How will you keep the audience interested and involved in the topic?

7. How will you end your presentation?

8. What will you wear for your presentation?

9. Will your presentation be 10 – 15 minutes long?
